

Drama

Students play the role of some characters after preparing their dialogues. They prepare for drama with the clothes of the characters.