

Game:

”Sheriff and cowboy”

You need some space in the classroom or outside. You shall try to react quickly.

1. The students stand next to each other in a circle. They are the cowboys.
2. One student stands in the middle of the circle. This person is the sheriff.
3. The sheriff pretends that his hands are a gun and he tries to shoot one of the cowboys.
4. a) When the sheriff tries to shoot one of the cowboys the cowboy shall try to duck before the sheriff hits her/him.
b) At the same time the two cowboys, who are next to the cowboy that the sheriff tries to shoot, shall try to shoot each other.
5. Those who are hit have to stay down now.
6. Repeat this until just one is left. And this cowboy can be the sheriff in the next game.
