

'Old Mat'

Its original name is Eski Minder. This game can be played by a number of students. The students form a circle. A leader is chosen and made to sit at the center of the circle.

- The students who form the circle begin to walk around the leader singing a song or rhyming.
- The leader points a situation and the others try to pretend to be the one that the leader pointed. This may be an occupation or situation.
- Then, the leader chooses the best one and this time he or she becomes the old mat(the leader)
