

Wheel of fortune

In the game, people hold the wheel of fortune and rotate it. When the wheel stops, the arrow in front of the person shows an amount of money. The person is asked a question. If the person knows the answer, s/he wins that amount of money. Until the end of the questions, the game continues and the person who takes the highest amount of money wins the game also.